Details of Achievements

In these five decades, the field of crop protection has evolved from the basic idea of integrated pest control followed by integrated pest management into the present holistic concept of Plant Health Management (PHM). It has opened a new era in safeguarding agricultural crops against the attack of arthropod pests, plant diseases and weeds for the benefit of farming community. In this cause, PPAI has demonstrated its ability to bring to the fore the fruits of scientific research and facilitate al
